

EDITING SAMPLE IN TRACK CHANGES MODE:

Socio-~~E~~conomic ~~d~~Development (~~SED~~) and enterprise development

XXXX, as a state owned company, must be at the forefront of driving ~~g~~Government's developmental objectives, by considering the regulatory and policy environment in which it operates. XXXX has a role to play in the growth and transformation of adjacent communities and the society in which it operates.

~~Since 2002, t~~The ~~g~~Group has implemented ~~the certain s~~Socio-~~e~~Economic and ~~e~~Enterprise ~~d~~Development (~~ED~~) programmes to support ~~s~~Social ~~c~~Compacts that include job creation and community infrastructure development ~~since 2002~~. ~~Enterprise Development (ED)~~ focuses on establishing sustainable enterprises within communities adjacent to XXXX's ~~p~~Plantations. Job creation and poverty alleviation ~~is one of are~~ the major drivers of this division.

The establishment of small businesses plays ~~s~~ an important role in the economic and social development of people living in rural communities. Small and micro businesses are an important force in: generating employment, income distribution, healthy competition, niche markets and enhancing and supporting productivity. Despite the importance of this sector, there are still a number of barriers that prevent entrepreneurs from starting and running ~~a~~ successful enterprises.

A total ~~amount~~ of R6.8 million was spent ~~towards on s~~Socio-~~e~~Economic ~~d~~Development ~~for in~~ 2014/15. A needs<sup>1</sup> analysis and project identification ~~plan (-~~ based on ~~the budget guidelines)~~ were finalised in collaboration with the Joint Community Forums (JCFs) ~~;~~ local forums that represent communities living adjacent to the ~~g~~Group's business operations. The drivers of ~~s~~Socio-~~e~~Economic ~~d~~Development include decent social infrastructure, job creation and poverty alleviation. This can only be achieved through the establishment of profitable sustainable enterprises, managed by communities for communities.

The company boasts ~~about the~~ mutually beneficial relationships ~~that have been~~ established between XXXX and the communities where ~~in~~ it operates ~~on~~. XXXX has, over the years, maintained these relationships with communities where ~~s~~Social ~~c~~Compacts have been signed. Since the implementation of ~~s~~Social ~~c~~Compacts, the company's relationship with the communities has improved. The partnership between the communities and the company ensures that real and critical needs are addressed to reduce poverty, improve living conditions and develop skills in rural communities living adjacent to or within the company's areas of operation.

EDITING SAMPLE WITH CORRECTIONS ACCEPTED:

Socio-economic development and enterprise development

XXXX, as a state owned company, must be at the forefront of driving government's developmental objectives, by considering the regulatory and policy environment in which it operates. XXXX has a role to play in the growth and transformation of adjacent communities and the society in which it operates.

Since 2002, the group has implemented certain socio-economic and enterprise development (ED) programmes to support social compacts that include job creation and community infrastructure development. ED focuses on establishing sustainable enterprises within communities adjacent to XXXX's plantations. Job creation and poverty alleviation are the major drivers of this division.

The establishment of small businesses plays an important role in the economic and social development of people living in rural communities. Small and micro businesses are an important force in: generating employment, income distribution, healthy competition, niche markets and enhancing and supporting productivity. Despite the importance of this sector, there are still a number of barriers that prevent entrepreneurs from starting and running a successful enterprise.

A total of R6.8 million was spent on socio-economic development in 2014/15. A needs analysis and project identification plan (based on budget guidelines) were finalised in collaboration with the Joint Community Forums (JCFs) - local forums that represent communities living adjacent to the group's business operations. The drivers of socio-economic development include decent social infrastructure, job creation and poverty alleviation. This can only be achieved through the establishment of profitable sustainable enterprises, managed by communities for communities.

The company boasts mutually beneficial relationships that have been established between XXXX and the communities wherein it operates. XXXX has, over the years, maintained these relationships with communities where social compacts have been signed. Since the implementation of social compacts, the company's relationship with the communities has improved. The partnership between the communities and the company ensures that real and critical needs are addressed to reduce poverty, improve living conditions and develop skills in rural communities living adjacent to or within the company's areas of operation.