

OVER-WRITING TRACK CHANGES SAMPLE:

Socio-Economic Development (SED) and enterprise development

~~XXX~~ As a state owned company, XXXX must be at the forefront of driving Government's developmental objectives; it does so; by considering the regulatory and policy environment in which it operates. XXXX has a role to play in the growth and transformation of ~~adjacent~~ communities adjacent to its operations and the broader society in which it operates.

Since 2002, the Group has implemented ~~the certain s~~Socio-Economic and ~~e~~Enterprise ~~d~~Development (ED) programmes, in order to support ~~s~~Social ~~c~~Compacts that include job creation and community infrastructure development ~~since 2002~~. Enterprise Development { It understands that: the drivers of socio-economic development include decent social infrastructure, job creation and poverty alleviation; and that this can only be achieved through the establishment of profitable sustainable enterprises, managed by communities for communities.

The ED division focuses on establishing sustainable enterprises within communities that are adjacent to XXXX's ~~p~~Plantations ~~– and j~~. Job creation and poverty alleviation ~~is one of~~ the major drivers that underpin the work of this division, which understands that

~~The establishment of~~ small and micro businesses play an important role in the economic and social development of people living in rural communities. They ~~Small and micro businesses~~ are an important force in generating employment, in income distribution, in stimulating healthy competition, in niche markets and in enhancing and supporting productivity. However, XXXX understands that, ~~d~~Despite their ~~important role~~ of this sector, there are still a number of barriers that prevent entrepreneurs from ~~starting and~~ running successful enterprises ~~small businesses~~.

A total ~~amount~~ of R6.8 million was spent ~~towards~~ on ~~s~~Socio-Economic ~~d~~Development ~~for in~~ 2014/15. The spend was based on a needs' analysis and project identification plan (~~– based on the budget guidelines~~) ~~were that were~~ finalised, in collaboration with the ~~j~~Joint ~~c~~Community ~~f~~Forums (JCFs); local forums that represent communities living adjacent to the Group's business operations. ~~The drivers of Socio-Economic Development include decent social infrastructure, job creation and poverty alleviation. This can only be achieved through the establishment of profitable sustainable enterprises, managed by communities for communities.~~

The company boasts about the mutually beneficial relationships it has developed ~~established between SAFCOL and with~~ the communities where in it operates ~~on~~. XXXX ~~has~~ ~~o~~ver the years, XXXX has maintained these relationships with communities where by way of ~~s~~Social ~~c~~Compacts that have been signed by both parties. Since the implementation of the ~~s~~Social ~~c~~Compacts, the company's relationship with the communities has improved. The partnership between the communities and the company ensures that real and critical needs are addressed to reduce poverty, improve living conditions and develop skills in rural communities living adjacent to or within the company's areas of operation.

OVER-WRITING RESULT SAMPLE:

Socio-economic development and enterprise development

XXXAs a state owned company, XXXX must be at the forefront of driving Government's developmental objectives; it does so by considering the regulatory and policy environment in which it operates. XXXX has a role to play in the growth and transformation of communities adjacent to its operations and the broader society in which it operates.

Since 2002, the group has implemented certain socio-economic and enterprise development (ED) programmes, in order to support social compacts that include job creation and community infrastructure development. It understands that: the drivers of socio-economic development include decent social infrastructure, job creation and poverty alleviation; and that this can only be achieved through the establishment of profitable sustainable enterprises, managed by communities for communities.

The ED division focuses on establishing sustainable enterprises within communities that are adjacent to XXXX's plantations – and job creation and poverty alleviation are the major drivers that underpin the work of this division, which understands that small and micro businesses play an important role in the economic and social development of people living in rural communities. They are an important force in generating employment, in income distribution, in stimulating healthy competition, in niche markets and in enhancing and supporting productivity. However, XXXX understands that, despite their important role, there are still a number of barriers that prevent entrepreneurs from running successful small businesses.

A total of R6.8 million was spent on socio-economic development in 2014/15. The spend was based on a needs analysis and project identification plan (based on budget guidelines) that were finalised, in collaboration with the joint community forums (JCFs) - local forums that represent communities living adjacent to the group's business operations.

The company boasts about the mutually beneficial relationships it has developed with the communities wherein it operates. Over the years, XXXX has maintained these relationships with communities by way of social compacts that have been signed by both parties. Since the implementation of the social compacts, the company's relationship with the communities has improved. The partnership between the communities and the company ensures that real and critical needs are addressed to reduce poverty, improve living conditions and develop skills in rural communities living adjacent to or within the company's areas of operation.